

Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) Benefit Transfer Affirmative Informed Consent/Subscriber Disclosure Statements

Please review and acknowledge the following disclosures as required by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC):

- 1) You will be transferring your Affordable Connectivity Program benefit to Singing River Connect as your “transfer-in” provider.
- 2) The effect of the transfer is that your Affordable Connectivity Program benefit will be applied to Singing River Connect’s service and will no longer be applied to the service from your existing (transfer-out) provider.
- 3) You may be subject to your transfer-out provider’s undiscounted rates as a result of the transfer if you elect to maintain service from that provider.
- 4) You are limited to one Affordable Connectivity Program benefit transfer transaction per service month, with only limited exceptions for situations where you seek to reverse an unwanted transfer or are unable to receive service from a specific provider.

The Subscriber acknowledges receipt and understanding of the above disclosures and grants Singing River Connect informed consent to transfer Subscriber’s existing Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) benefit to Singing River Connect as the transfer-in service Provider.
